Humans Are Beautiful

Award winning comic, Michael Workman, brings his genre-defying comedy home

WINNER: Best Newcomer, Melbourne International Comedy Festival 2011

Michael Workman has been awarded the coveted 'Best Newcomer' prize at this year's Melbourne International Comedy Festival for his critically acclaimed one-man comedy show 'Humans are Beautiful'.

Workman, who also won National Raw Comedy (2009) and Wild West Comedy Festival's 'Best Show' award (2010) will be taking his hour long monologue about a walk through a war zone to this year's Wild West Comedy Festival in Perth, for three shows only at the Astor upstairs May 19th to 21st.

In this strange and moving fable, Workman takes us through a time of itinerant reflection, where he meets a talking dog and an art student who digs graves for fun. 'Humans are Beautiful' is a genre-defying journey into the wilds of human life and the compassion of ordinary people.

Genuinely moving and extraordinarily funny, don't miss this standout show from award winning performer Michael Workman.

"His attitude, and his thoughtful imagery, sticks with you long after you've left the venue. Impressive stuff, indeed." - Chortle

"Humans are Beautiful will be one of the standout shows of the festival. People need to go and see Michael Workman" - The Pun
