Wild West Triple Bill Exclusive: Mikey Robins, Tommy Dean & Perth's own Joel Creasey

From Good News Week to the USA to ... Armadale - they have seen it all.

Australia's most loveable TV and radio personality, Mikey Robins, is headed to Perth to host an awesome night of comedy in a Wild West exclusive triple bill.

Intelligent and hilarious, Robins is one of Australia's most in demand entertainers. Through his 7 years at the helm of the Triple J National Breakfast Program, Triple M Drive, ABC TV and now the massively successful & iconic Good News Week, Mikey Robins has become one of the most recognisable faces and voices in Australian Entertainment. Don't miss your chance to catch him outside the TV set, free of the wireless and in the flesh at The Astor Theatre.

"A bubbling tap of passionate stories, memories and amusing anecdotes." Breakfast Out

Joining Robins is the sensational Tommy Dean, returning to our humble town with his riotous, observational and cunningly absurd comedy. A regular on Spicks & Specks and Good News Week, Tommy Dean has made Australia his home after leaving the wilds of the Americas in search of an audience to appreciate his quirky intelligence. He knows what makes Australians laugh and his generous humour has won him fans across the globe.

"...he undoubtedly possesses the smarts, skill and wit that would make Australians happy for him to be considered one of us." The Age

Perth born and bred, Joel Creasey will sashay into town to round out this exciting triple bill. 2010 Melbourne International Comedy Festival Best Newcomer nominee Creasey is one of Australia's youngest, brightest and most sought-after stand up comedians. At only 19, he is quickly cutting a swathe through the Australian comedy scene with his fast-paced wit, up to the minute material and engaging delivery.

"Utterly brilliant – switched on, quick, pacy and lots of fun, I laughed loudly and raucously, Joel definitely has a future." 3AW Radio

If it is truly great comedy you are after with an Australian edge, international flavour and a bit of bitching do not miss the only triple bill of the festival. One show only book now.
